

VDTR Open Research Day IX

Monday, 4 May 2026

Place: Dekanatssitzungssaal KTF (staircase 8, second floor), Universitätsring 1, 1010 Wien

Online: <https://univienne.zoom.us/j/69804941008?pwd=WXvdQans6taUEMsLn6V8pAaqBlfsPr.1>

(we will stream the programme in the morning as well as the student assembly)

9.00 – 9.15	A brief welcome
9.15 – 10.15	Presentations I
	Fariza Biaseva – Qur'anic Passages that Legitimize Violence and Their Interpretation by Young Muslims Imam Khomaeni Hayatullah - Mapping the Entanglement: A Comparative Literature Review of Citizenship and Islamic Religious Education in Austria and Indonesia Joachim Mahona - Responsible Child Protection in Sukumaland, Tanzania: Opportunities and Challenges of Moral Education through Radio and Television Programs
10.15 – 10.30	Coffee Break
10.30 – 11.50	Presentations II
	Miriam Rafai - Exit from Apocalypse? Ethical Messianism as Jewish Response to Climate Change, Uncertainty, and Crisis Quang Huynh - Hòa Hảo Buddhism: A Combination of Thiền and Pure Land Buddhism? Maurycy Perycz-Szczepański - What does the Book of Job have to do with Buddhist koans? Sebastian Seidl -
11.50 – 12.05	Coffee Break
12.05 – 13.05	Presentations III
	Michelin Petit-Frère - Human Dignity and the Common Good: A Liberation Theology Approach to Overcome Poverty in Haïti Miquel Rius - Frontier Thinking in Medieval Iberia: Law, Translation, and Symbolic Mediation William Bush - The Monastery in the World: Elements of a Lay Spirituality in the Works of Archpriest Valentin Svetsitsky'
13.05 – 13.30	Student Assembly
13.30 – 14.30	Lunch Break
15.00 – 16.00	Guided Tour of the Albertina exhibition “Care Matters”